APRIL PROGRAM:

INTERNATIONAL ST. LOUIS: 101

WCR is Celebrating St. Louis Diversity with KATE HOWELL and KELLY
MOORE of the INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE ST. LOUIS

Ms. Howell and Ms. Moore will discuss the makeup of ethnic communities in St. Louis and the services available to them. Our speakers will also cover the many ways WCR-Metro STL members can get involved in supporting International Institute St. Louis' cause.

The International Institute, a 501 c (3) agency and member of the United Way, helps refugees and immigrants to independence by teaching English, finding jobs and providing adjustment services to overcome language and cultural barriers. For more info visit: www.iistl.org.

Ms. Howell works with ethnic leaders and their communities. She serves as Community Relations Manager, leading the agency's Junior Board, as well as its Marketing, Fundraising and Volunteer Coordination.

Ms. Moore started at the International Institute as a job developer. She worked in the employment department for four years. The past two years Kelly has had increasing responsibility in the areas of Donor Relations, Program Development and Quality Assurance team.
